A HAPPY FAMILY AS AN ACHIEVEMENT IN LIFE

Kazakhstan Institute for Strategic Studies under the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan presents the answers of respondents about the family.

Thinking back to the words of Lev Tolstoy "Happy is he who is happy at home", we note that more than half of Kazakhstan's people can be considered as such. Since in the national survey, 67.7% of respondents said that they have succeeded to create a happy family.

Another 24.1% of respondents do not yet have their own happy family, but are confident that they can achieve it.

The percentage of those who have doubts about their ability to create a happy family is 3.8%.
